- (2) In this constitution:

- (a) a reference to a function includes a reference to a power, authority and duty, and
- (b) a reference to the exercise of a function includes, if the function is a duty, a reference to the performance of the duty.

- (3) The provisions of the Interpretation Act 1987 apply to and in respect of this constitution in the same manner as those provisions would so apply if this constitution were an instrument made under the Act.

Part 2 Membership

2 Membership generally

- (1) A person is eligible to be a member of the association if:
 - (a) the person is a natural person, and
 - (b) the person has applied and been approved for membership of the association in accordance with clause 3.
- (2) A person is taken to be a member of the association if:
 - (a) the person is a natural person, and
 - (b) the person was:
 - (i) in the case of an unincorporated body that is registered as the association - a member of that unincorporated body immediately before the registration of the association, or
 - (ii) in the case of an association that is amalgamated to form the relevant association - a member of that other association immediately before the amalgamation, or
 - (iii) in the case of a registrable corporation that is registered as an association - a member of the registrable corporation immediately before that entity was registered as an association.
- (3) A person is taken to be a member of the association if the person was one of the individuals on whose behalf an application for registration of the association under section 6 (1) (a) of the Act was made.
- (4) Membership – The Club shall consist of the following classes of members
 - a) Full Members
 - b) Honorary Members
 - c) Honorary Life Members
 - d) Associate Members

Membership Qualifications:

- (a) Full members who are individual members.
- (b) An Honorary Member is any person who the Committee has elected for a specified time (to be nominated) who is likely to render special services and/or demonstrate practical support to the Club and its wellbeing.
- (c) Honorary Life Members. The committee shall have the power to elect as Honorary Life Members without payment of any further subscription any member of not less than 5 years standing who will in the opinion of the committee have rendered exceptional services to the club. Honorary Life Memberships may be awarded during the year such election shall not take effect unless and until the same is confirmed at the next Annual General meeting.
- (d) Associate members are persons who on payment of a prescribed fee of $5 for one day or fee determined by the committee may attend an event/function. Associate members must comply with the Constitution of the Club. Associate members on payment of the fee are members for the day and have the same rights as members to make a claim in regards to personal injury and public liability insurance. If the event is more than one day the fee is for one day only, for example a three day event would be a payment of $15.00.

- (e) We have been advised by the GCA Insurance Advisor that if the event/function being held is attended by several financial members from GCA affiliated clubs the event/function could be declared a joint club event/function which would ensure that they could have the opportunity to claim under the best insurance cover and be covered by their own Clubs insurance. A record of a joint event/function needs to be noted in the Minutes that are kept of a meeting or by emails and correspondence etc. If persons attending the event/function are not financial members of a GCA affiliated club then those attendees must pay the fee and join CBMGC as an associate member for the day.
- (f) At each meeting that is attended all members and visitors must sign into the register to be eligible for insurance cover.
- (g) i) Visitors to club activities eg meetings, luncheons, bus trips, garden rambles, are encouraged to apply to become members after their attendance at their third club activity within 12 months of their attendance at the first activity.

3 Application for membership

 - (b) must be lodged (including by electronic means, if the committee so determines) with the membership officer who then passes them onto the Treasurer of the association.
- (2) As soon as practicable after receiving an application for membership, the Membership Committee member must refer the application to the committee, which is to determine whether to approve or to reject the application.

 - (7) If the register of members is kept in electronic form:
 - (a) it must be convertible into hard copy, and
 - (b) the requirements in subclauses (2) and (3) apply as if a reference to the register of members is a reference to a current hard copy of the register of members.

8 Fees and subscriptions

- (1) A member of the association must, on admission to membership, pay to the association the annual fee of $25 or other amount as determined by the committee.
